THE DEATH OF DANA R. WORTHEN

Was Well Known Young Trainer, Driver and Horse Dealer.

Dana R. Worthen, well and most favorably known in this section as a harness race-horse trainer, driver and dealer, died at his home here Saturday after a brief illness of pneumonia, aged 29 years.

He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarendon J. Worthen, was born and lived in St. Albans until the family came to Bangor about eight years ago. He attended Maine Central Institute and Bliss Commercial College. Brought up among horses, the business of his father, he was a skillful driver before he was out of his teens. He made his first appearance in races with his pacer, Billy the Rabbit winning considerable notice as "the boy driver" and usually being "inside the money."

He had appeared on the Maine tracks ever since driving the Worthen string and for other owners. He had a fine reputation as a clever, quiet and well-behaved reinsman, for it was very rarely that a starter was troubled by Dana Worthen. It was not unusual for father and son to drive on the same card although rarely in the same race. He was of a genial disposition and had many friends.

At the time of his death he was president of the Webb & Worthen Co. Inc., horse dealers.

He was a member of the Knights of Pythias of Hartland. Surviving are his wife, M. Lois Worthen and a daughter, Mary Ellen. A sister, Mrs. George Mills, lives in Essex Junction, Vt.

Funeral services will be at the residence, 96 Forest avenue at 10 a. m., DST, Tuesday. Interment will be in the village cemetery, St. Albans, at 1 p. m. Tuesday.
