His grandparents settled in Palmyra in the 1830s where Albert lived with his parents until he moved to Hartland in 1865 and soon after established A. W. Miller Drugs & Medicines Store on Main Street. He was living at the Park House in C/1870 at 35yrs old noted as an Apothecary. He was a boarder in the William Stevens household on Pittsfield Avenue in C/1880 noted as single and a Druggist. Around 1885, he moved his business across the street to the Hartland Drug Store location before returning back to his original Main Street location in 1902 where he continued working and living upstairs until his death.

Albert was an active member in town affairs serving as a Selectman, Liquor Agent, Postmaster, Probate Judge and a Maine State Representative. He was on the Hartland Academy Board of Trustees since 1875 and was a member of the committee established to build the Town Hall. In the mid-1890s, Miller operated a circulating library at his store until 1900 before the Hartland Public Library opened in 1903.

Myra's sister Mary Haskell married Dr. Harris Pushor who served as a physician in Hartland for many years and lived in Warren Square before moving to Pittsfield in 1885. Following Albert's death, Myra moved to Hubbard Avenue after C/1920 living there by C/1930 at 65yrs old. She later returned to their Main Street home where she passed away. They are interred in the Miller Family Plot with his nephew Benjamin Israel Miller and his wife Ada Marie Seekins. (See Stephen Seekins Family)
