

Woodbury Family

Compiled by Bruce A. Fowler

Hartland Historical Society ~ 2013 (Updated January 28, 2025)

John Woodbury was born in 1579 in Burlescombe, England and came to the New World by 1627 with his first wife Joan and their son Humphrey Woodbury, born in 1611 in England. John remarried to Agnes Napper in 1627 in Salem, Massachusetts. His Great-Great Grandson Moses Woodbury moved from Salisbury, Massachusetts to New Gloucester, Maine about 1764 with his wife Sarah (True) and their family of 6 children including their oldest son Nathaniel Woodbury, Sr.

Nathaniel Woodbury, Sr.

s/o Moses Woodbury & Sarah True

b. 13 Jan 1752 Salisbury, Massachusetts

d. 1850 Hartland (unknown burial location)

m. 12 Aug 1773 New Gloucester

Anna Nevens

d/o Hugh Nevens & Joanna Burnham

b. 1757 Gloucester, Massachusetts

d. after 1820 Hartland? (unknown burial location)

They were living in New Gloucester in 1800 with their children. By the time of the 1810 Census, they had already moved to West Hartland listed near Huff Hill (aka "The Gore") possibly with several of their younger children likely including their sons Samuel, Charles, Nathaniel Jr & Moses and daughters Charlotte, Nancy & Sarah.

Nathaniel, Sr is the only Woodbury listed in Hartland in the 1810 Census so it is presumed it was soon after this when their son Israel Woodbury also settled in West Hartland at Huff Hill and their son Isaiah Woodbury settled in West Hartland at Goodwin Hill as noted in the 1912 Somerset County Register. No further records have been found for their sons Samuel or Nathaniel Woodbury, Jr. Their son Charles Woodbury is only found in the deed reference below which Anna is recorded signing.

1800 Census - Household of Nathaniel Woodbury (Sr)

"February 23, 1878 - Hartland - Isaiah Woodbury (III) was instantly killed on Saturday in Lynn's Woolen Mill in Hartland, being caught in a belt."

"March 2, 1878 - Hartland - The reporter says that Mr. Isaiah Woodbury (II), father of the young man who was killed at Linn's Mills, Hartland, was at work in the woods at the time of the accident, and on the same day had a presentiment of his son's death. The effect upon his mind created considerable alarm among the men at work with him. He left his work and arrived at his home just as the messenger came to communicate the sad intelligence of his son's death."

Charles S. Littlefield

b. 9 July 1858 Waterville

d. 12 Mar 1922 Palmyra

They had no known children. (C/1910 also notes 1 child born, 0 living)

Charles was adopted and raised by his Uncle Isaiah B. Littlefield and his wife Mary W. Goff. They moved from Waterville to Hartland with Charles in 1871 where Isaiah operated the Hartland House until his death in 1882. Charles married 1st to Eva (Unknown) in 1883 but soon abandoned the marriage, divorced and remarried to Rose.

Charles & Rose were living in Hartland in C/1900 before moving to Palmyra on Outer Elm Street just over the Hartland town line by C/1910. Mary (Goff) Littlefield remarried to Isaac Stedman III (See Stedman Family) in 1886 and was living with Charles & Rose in C/1910 after Isaac's death in 1908 and noted as Charles' adopted mother.

Soon after Rose's death, Charles remarried on June 3, 1917 to Nettie Bernice Emery of Bradbury residing at the same home in Palmyra in C/1920. In 1919, they opened a branch of the Iona Mill Ends Company at their house; a mail order outlet store specializing in various cotton goods and cloth remnants. Following Charles' death, Bernice operated the store until late 1924.

6. Charles Woodbury (Unconfirmed. See other Charles Woodbury below)
b. 1823 Hartland
d.

Whether this Charles existed is unconfirmed as there are conflicting accounts between him and his First Cousin Charles Woodbury (son of Israel Woodbury, Sr & Abigail Spencer). This Charles is incorrectly noted in the 1912 Somerset County Register as the son of Isaiah Woodbury as it is actually his Uncle Charles Woodbury (see above), son of Nathaniel Woodbury, who is referenced. Only the other Charles Woodbury is found in any Census Reports from 1850-1910 in the great Hartland area. A notation on the only known document with either of their parents is the other Charles' death certificate which incorrectly notes his father's name as Isaiah Woodbury with no reference to his mother. This Charles may have died or moved from Hartland by 1850 but no further documentation has been found to support either theory.

b. 1828

d. 3 Nov 1867 Hartland (IC)

Some confusion between he and his First Cousin Charles Woodbury (son of Isaiah Woodbury, Sr & Thankful Libby) who appear to be born within a year or so of each other. The other Charles is incorrectly noted in the 1912 Somerset County Register as the son of Isaiah Woodbury but it is actually his Uncle Charles Woodbury (see above), son of Nathaniel Woodbury. A notation on the only known document stating either of their parents is Charles' death certificate which incorrectly reports his father's name as Isaiah Woodbury with no reference to his mother.

Only one Charles Woodbury is found in Census Reports from 1850-1910 in the greater Hartland area. He is noted in C/1850 on September 16th at 25yrs old living with his parents and brother Abram in Hartland. C/1860 in Harmony: Charles age 37; Sarah 32; Lorenzo 7; Franklin 5 and Sarah E. Elliot 9. C/1870 in Hartland: Charles 43; Emily 41; Lorenzo 17; Franklin 14; John 8; Jason 7; Emily 1. C/1880 in Hartland: Charles 54; Emily 51; Franklin 25; Emma 11. Charles is living in Pittsfield in C/1900 as a widower at 74yrs old with his widowed sister, Louisa Lincoln. In C/1910, Charles was noted as a ward at the Town Poor Farm on Huff Hill at 84yrs old.
